In-Text Citations

The first words of the in-text citation should mirror the first words of the source on the References page.

Remember the following

- Never use the URL in the citation.
- Never use the first or middle initials of the author(s) in the citation.
- Always include the year in the citation.
- Always use p. or pp. for page numbers or para. or ¶ for paragraph numbers with direct quotations.
- Include the author’s name or title of the work when no author is listed, year, and page or paragraph number (for a direct quotation) within the parentheses.
- Place the punctuation after the final parenthesis of the citation unless it is a block quote.
- Follow the rule of punctuation for capitalization of the first title mentioned within the reference. Titles of books and articles: capitalize the first word, the first word following a colon, and proper nouns.

The following examples provide information about how to format in-text citations and the corresponding source on the reference page.
